

15 JAN 1982

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director for Administration

25X1 FROM: [REDACTED]
 Director of Security

SUBJECT: Final Report Regarding the Jack Anderson Column
 of 29 November 1981 Entitled "The CIA's Real Sins" and the Foreign Report Article of 12 November 1981
 Entitled "Short Sighted Spies"

25X1 1. As noted in the interim report (Tab A) on these two articles (Tab B), the Jack Anderson column of 29 November 1981
 entitled "CIA's Real Sins," [REDACTED]

2. Efforts to locate the source of the Foreign Report article have not been successful. Extensive efforts by the Secretary of the Air Force/Space Systems Office at the Pentagon, by COMIREX, by Central Intelligence Agency/Deputy Director for Intelligence and by the National Security Council Staff have not located any documents that reflect the views portrayed in this article, i.e., critical of former President Carter for the termination of a satellite system in 1977. (S)

3. It is possible that the Foreign Report article was itself based on another news item. The text of this article is general in nature and takes a position on satellite reconnaissance that easily could be advocated by defense-oriented publications
 printed in the United States. (U)

4. The Office of Security does not contemplate any additional investigation of this article. (S)
